

Established in 2009, Wind, Water and Energy Conservation is led by a management team with over 50 years of Energy Services experience. As a small company, WWEC recognizes the needs of smaller niche markets. WWEC makes energy efficiency improvements affordable for smaller housing authorities and independent and parochial schools with no upfront capital investment through self-funding energy efficiency programs and energy performance contracts.